Quarterly Work Parties

Rose Garden

The Buddhist Light International Association prunes, weeds, rakes the Rose Garden.

Rhododendron Island and Lloyd Lake

Typically One Brick volunteer group works at the Rhododendron Island and Lloyd Lake.

Go to <http://www.onebrick.org> for upcoming project listings.

Strybing Arboretum

Many volunteer opportunities exist at the Strybing Arboretum. Visit the Arboretum's website at: <http://www.sfbotanicalgarden.org/Volunteering/Opportunities.html>

Conservatory of Flowers

Volunteers help maintain this beautiful array of plants housed in the Conservatory along JFK Drive. Contact Volunteer Coordinator, Lee Edwards via email at info@conservatoryofflowers.org or phone 415-722-6650.

Dahlia Society

The splendid Dahlia Garden next to the Conservatory of Flowers in Golden Gate Park is maintained by the Dahlia Society. For more info and to volunteer visit <http://www.sfdahlia.org/>

Volunteer opportunities:

Try an existing project or propose a new one. Gather 10 plus volunteers and the RPD will work with you to create a successful garden work party. The Rhododendron Dell, near the Music Concourse, is currently available for a volunteer group to support. Sunday and week day projects are also available.

The Department works with individuals, school, community and business groups. For more information about our Volunteer Opportunities go to: http://www.parks.sfgov.org/site/recpark\_index. Click on the Volunteer Program or call 831-6330 Ext 4.
